SupplySide Global 2026 Exhibition Announcement

Los Angeles (October 14, 2026) - The Wakunaga group of companies will be introducing S1PC® at SupplySide Global in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA, from Wednesday, October 28 to Friday, October 30, 2026.

SupplySide Global is an international B2B trade show for the health and nutrition industry, including dietary supplements, food, and beverages.

At our booth, we will showcase the latest research and information on S1PC®, a garlic-derived bioactive compound that contributes to longevity and promotes healthy aging.

We look forward to welcoming you to our booth #1216. Please stop by and visit us!
